

FIGHT MUST BEGON, DECLARES BRYAN

Believes Principles Democracy Stands for Will Finally Prevail.

MUST BE NO CHANGE IN PARTY'S TACTICS

Only Hope for Democrats Is to Continue Fighting on Same Lines.

FIGHT MUST GO ON ALONG SAME LINES

The Democratic party must continue its fight or dissolve. It could not exist as a plutocratic party.—William Jennings Bryan.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 12.—"A battle lost—a war begun," is the caption of the first page editorial in this week's issue of William Jennings Bryan's newspaper.

"The election of 1908 is over and the returns disclose a signal victory for our opponents, but the principles for which our party contends, these are not dead. A good proposition is not made bad by rejection at the polls; a needed reform is not made unnecessary by an adverse vote.

"The legislation asked for by the Democratic party in its national platform was not of a temporary character; it was legislation which will be of permanent advantage when it is secured.

As to Reforms.

"Does any one believe that the American people will permanently permit the will of the voters to be thwarted, as it is now, by the election of Senators through legislatures? Does any one believe that the trusts will be permitted permanently to exploit the masses?

"Does any one believe that the consumer will permanently permit the tariff to be written by the beneficiaries of that tariff? Does any one believe that the public will permanently tolerate estrangement between labor and capital?

"Does anyone believe that 15,000,000 of depositors will forever permit their savings to be jeopardized as at present?

"Does anyone believe that the extravagance of the Government will go on forever unchecked?

"Does anyone believe that our Republic will permanently consent to a colonial policy with humiliations and financial burdens?

Is a Necessity.

"There must be a party representing the people's protest against wrong in high places, against corruption in politics, and against the oppression of the struggling masses, and the Democratic party must continue its fight or dissolve. It could not exist as a plutocratic party. "During the last twelve years, the Democratic party has accomplished more out of power than the Republican party has accomplished in office, and this is a sufficient reward for those who fight for a righteous cause. "It would have been pleasant to have been able to reward worthy Democrats with official positions, but the most worthy of the Democrats are not looking for official position.

PROSPERITY'S RETURN SEEN IN TRADE PRESS

All Lines of Business Improve, Following Election, and Confident Predictions Are Made as to Its Continuation Throughout United States.

The trade press of the country, class publications, each with the closest kind of connection with the manufacturers and the retailers it purports to represent, finds that business conditions have improved in nearly all lines of trade. Moreover, predictions are made as to future improvement with confidence. Here are some of the predictions:

NORTHWESTERN MILLER.—The present condition and the future prospects of the milling business are satisfactory and encouraging. The flour mills throughout the United States as a rule had a fairly satisfactory season in 1937 and 1938, and the crop of wheat this year is ample in quantity and of exceptionally fine quality. We therefore hope for a larger export trade in flour this year than usual.

TEA AND COFFEE TRADE JOURNAL.—The dealing interests of the tea and coffee trade throughout the country have been only slightly affected by the business depression of the past year. Tea drinking and coffee drinking are on the increase in America. Evidence of better business conditions are plentiful on every side.

Dry Goods Trade Healthy.—The retail dry goods trade is now in a very healthy condition. Purchases have been held down all this year and stocks are low and clean. Given reasonable weather, the retail dry goods trade of the country as a whole for November, 1938, will probably equal if not surpass that of any preceding November in our history.

FIBER AND FABRIC.—We look for a decided improvement in business between now and spring. Already there are evidences of improvement. The worsted and woolen goods manufacturers are buying more freely of wool and raw material, as they have received more orders within the last two or three weeks than previously. Business is not yet being done on a large scale, but there is an undertone of strength and confidence in the situation which was lacking a few months ago. We believe that all that has been needed to start the wheels of industry going at a normal rate has been the removal of uncertainty attending the election.

TEXTILE MANUFACTURERS JOURNAL.—The dry goods trade has passed through a period of stress and strain that has seldom been equaled in intensity; but it would seem as though the worst was over and that the outlook is for gradual resumption to normal trade on a remunerative basis.

TEXTILE WORLD RECORD.—In textile manufacturing circles there is a sincere feeling of improvement and business which is backed by the cheering evidence of more mills starting up in full time, more orders for machinery and a general tone of increased confidence.

BOOT AND SHOE RECORDEER.—The shoe and leather business prospects for 1938 will be one of the most successful business years in our history.

AUTOMOBILE.—Present prospects are encouraging. The automobile industry is on a substantial basis, and many are doing an enormous business. The general feeling is healthy.

JEWELERS' CIRCULAR.—With the election over it is now confidently expected that business will pick up in all lines, including jewelry, but not in a rush. The optimism of the trade now is pronounced, but conservative.

Jewelry Makers Are Pushed.—The jewelry trade is showing a decided improvement in business. The factories of smiths at present writing are generally taxed to their full capacity. Some of them are running extra hours to fill orders for the holiday trade. There is an optimistic feeling abroad in our industries that is very pleasing.

MANUFACTURING JEWELER.—The factories of smiths at present writing are generally taxed to their full capacity. Some of them are running extra hours to fill orders for the holiday trade. There is an optimistic feeling abroad in our industries that is very pleasing.

AMERICAN WOOLEN MILLS RESUMING

About 67 Per Cent of Total Machinery Is Again in Operation.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 12.—About 67 per cent of the total machinery of the mills of the American Woollen Company is now in operation and the business of the company has shown a distinct improvement since the election.

President William M. Wood says: "Business the past year has been more a question of keeping our machinery busy and our operatives employed than of profits for stockholders. Everybody is acquainted with the business conditions of the past year, so stockholders need not feel disappointed when they get the results. Our books do not close until the last of the year, so that it is too early to say just what we will show, but it has been 'poor pickings'."

"I have every confidence in the future, however, for already there has been a material improvement in the size and character of our orders. The bulk of our goods, however, are already contracted for six months in advance, so that our mills are now working on orders taken last summer at low prices."

"Our next big sales take place in January, and judging from the improvement in general business conditions, and the position of raw wool, there will undoubtedly be an advance in prices."

"The only deterrent factor in the tariff question, but this is in the hands of sensible men, and I think the business world need have no fear as to the results. With the affairs of the nation committed to the hands of Mr. Taft, there should be a great renewal of confidence."

Kansas City Cotton Mills Resume Work.—The plant of the Kansas City cotton mills, in the west end of Armourdale, has resumed operation, after being closed down for nearly a year. A portion of the institution was used as an ice plant during the summer. However, the mill proper is now to be operated at its full capacity, the company's storage rooms being filled with raw materials received during the past couple of months from Texas and Oklahoma. The company expects to keep the plant running all winter. It means the employment of about 300 persons.

Lumber Dealers Agreed That Business Is Better.—MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 12.—The members of the Alabama and West Florida Lumber Manufacturers' Association, in session here, are agreed that business is getting better, that prices, while not advancing just yet, are firm and that the inquiries are far in excess of what they were several days ago. The revival has dated from the election, and it is followed by a general feeling of confidence in the future, they say. Many of the larger car factories are back in the market and this has given a good tone to all classes of output.

It is also said by south Alabama and Florida men that the increased demand for sawed timbers has added strength to the local market and given better showing for moving other grades. Cars are said also to be obtainable to move the output. Mill yards are low and business is not taken for more than two weeks off.

RUNS INTO SULPHUR.—The steamship Cayo Domingo, of the Cuban Steamship line, arrived at Tampa looking as if she had taken a sulphur bath or had been fumigated from the outside. The master reported that when coming up the coast opposite Dos Bocas, although from thirty to fifty miles from shore, he encountered a current of sulphur gas which he had to breathe through a handkerchief. He ran through the phenomenon for nearly an hour, and the effect on the paint and iron work of the ship was very apparent when she reached port.—Mexican Herald.

FUNERAL OF MILLER FROM UNION STATION.—The funeral of the late Admiral J. N. Miller, who died in Philadelphia yesterday will take place directly from the Union Station tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. The interment will be at Arlington. Carriages will be provided for those who wish to accompany the remains from Union Station to Arlington.

ENGLISH CHEW GUM.

"I had always supposed that the gum-chewing habit was a vice peculiar to America," said the young woman lately returned from abroad, "but I found it in England just the same as here, and, not only among women, but among men, even those of the cloth. Why, do you know, I attended a service at St. Paul's and there saw one of the assistants chewing until it came time for him to read prayers. Then I watched hard, wondering what he would do. There was no wondering on his part. He coolly took his mouthful out, stuck it under the reading table, and did his part as if it were through a routine which he was entirely accustomed to."—New York Evening Post.
